Project description

Year	Region/ Country	Organisation	Name of Project	Project Description
2020	HK	The Hong Kong Council of Social Service (Gold Award and Best Collaborative Award)	Community Housing Movement	The project is a social movement that aims at improving the housing needs of the grassroots families in a narrow sense, especially address their poverty issue. This joint efforts of the Funders, landlords, and NGOs/social enterprises (SEs), supported by the Government, since 2017 has demonstrated a great success to meet the project objectives.
2020	HK	Aberdeen Kai-fong Welfare Association Social Service (Bronze Award)	Intergenerational Community Engagement Project	The project successfully develops high levels of intergenerational solidarity in non-family context that carried over to the family context and has positive effect on intra-familial relationships among different generations.
2020	HK	Caritas Dr. & Mrs. Olinto de Sousa Integrated Family Service Centre (Outstanding Award)	Discovering the BLESSings in our Life	The project aims at shifting the traditional Chinese cultural paradigm of fault finding, to a strength-based discovery of expressing appreciation within the family. The project strived to nurture a mutual support atmosphere, hence higher resilience within individuals and families, in the community.
